Blockchain

White Papers on Dissent is a public programme on the politics and poetics of Blockchain as a tool for radical imagination. Through panel discussions, artist talks, participatory events, and a podcast White Papers on Dissent aims to collectively practice the making of the world otherwise. By thinking through the technology it rehearses new social and political imaginaries. White Papers on Dissent intends to move away from the economic discourse surrounding blockchain to understand technology as a social apparatus. It investigates how technology can re-address power structures, create alternative forms of governance, and generate new forms of digital activism supporting commons-oriented ecosystems. CONFIRMED PARTICIPANTS Geert Lovink, Emiliano Treré, Black Swan (Penny Raffety, Laura Lotti, Calum Bowden), Larisa Blazic, Balázs Bodó, Daphne Dragona, Shintaro Miyazaki, Christopher Kulendran Thomas (RadicalXMarkets), Yin Aiwen, Allie Rutherford, Maksym Rokmaniko (DOMA), David Rozas (P2P Models), Julio Linares (Circles UBI).

Projectinformatie (NL)

Blockchain

White Papers on Dissent is een publiek programma over de politiek en poëzie van Blockchain. Door middel van paneldiscussies, gesprekken met kunstenaars, interactieve evenementen en een podcast oefent White Papers on Dissent collectief in het anders maken van de wereld. Dit doet het door het anders gebruiken van technologie en om zo nieuwe sociale en politieke denkbbeelden te creëren. White Papers on Dissent wil afstand nemen van het economische discours rond blockchain om de technologie te begrijpen als een sociaal apparaat. Het onderzoekt hoe de technologie machtsstructuren opnieuw aan de orde kan stellen, alternatieve vormen van bestuur kan creëren en nieuwe vormen van digitaal activisme kan genereren ter ondersteuning van commons-oriented ecosystemen. BEVESTIGDE DEELNEMERS Geert Lovink, Emiliano Treré, Black Swan (Penny Raffety, Laura Lotti, Calum Bowden), Larisa Blazic, Balázs Bodó, Daphne Dragona, Shintaro Miyazaki, Christopher Kulendran Thomas (RadicalXMarkets), Yin Aiwen, Allie Rutherford, Maksym Rokmaniko (DOMA), David Rozas (P2P Models), Julio Linares (Circles UBI).
