

Gallery Untitled at Piet Hein Eek

Project Information (EN)

Following a successful exhibition during Dutch Design Week 2024, Gallery Untitled relocates its presentation from Rotterdam to the iconic studio of renowned designer Piet Hein Eek. In this new setting, we present work by both designers and autonomous artists, united by a shared focus on environmental themes. Material is not just a medium, but a starting point — a driving force that shapes the narrative and form of each piece. By deliberately blurring the lines between design and art, the exhibition invites visitors to reflect on the role of materiality in a more sustainable future. This year with works by: Floris Hovers, Maurice Doorduyn, Sander Buijk, Hans van Asch, Lenny Oosterwijk, Ikonik and Wandschappen.
