Project Information (EN)

Isola Design Gallery

Isola Design Gallery celebrates unique, handmade, and collectible products made by independent designers and studios worldwide. Drafting new lines for high-end design with works inspired by architecture, art, minimalism, and sustainability. After its success during the last Milan Design Week, Isola Design Gallery arrives in Eindhoven for Dutch Design Week 2022 at the beautiful Pennings Gallery. Most of the items on display are available to purchase. In a dedicated space, Zuiver promotes a selection of products that came to life in their scholarship program, Supported by ELLE Decoration NL. The program allows young graduates to gain experience while designing a product for the Zuivers collection. With this year's scholarship winner Sarah Roseman.
