

SEASONING FALL - SPECIAL EDITION DUTCH DESIGN WEEK

Project Information (EN)

Every change of the season United Cowboys invites audiences to the art house to witness new developments in the field of live-art. Local, national and international guest artists develop and show their new work and research in a transdisciplinary program. An artistic dialogue with dance, music, performance and fine arts, in which physicality predominates Seasoning Fall shows a program of work in development, placed in an international context of performances. Next to the durational piece Boys Just Wanna Have Fun, the program will consist of solo dance performances and free entrance to the installations of the DDW participations. The program is being curated by the artistic team of United Cowboys: Maarten van der Put en Pauline Roelants. This is a paid event. DDW ticket holders receive a student discount. Limited Capacity. This event happens of two nights: October 24 & 25
