New Now

As a group of young designers, the way the future is going to look and be like is on our minds. Explorations on the nature-culture of food, possible solutions to rising water levels, new energy sources, our relation to air pollution and the importance of weeds are all important parts of this future. What will our future homes look like? What will be hanging on our walls and standing on our tables? How will those products be made? And outside of our homes, how do we create connections between people again? After a pandemic full of distance, how do we celebrate the relationships that are there? These are the questions of the future that keep us busy today. As solutions to the big questions of the New, might be found in our actions and ideas Now. So, come to our show to see, feel and discuss the New Now. (Scroll down for info on the projects on show!) > New Now is an initiative by Product Design alumni from ArtEZ (Arnhem)

Nieuwe Nu

Als jonge ontwerper ben je constant bezig met de toekomst. Ideeën over hoe alles eruit zal zien, dwalen dan ook door onze gedachtes. Het ontdekken van een nieuwe relatie tot voeding en natuur, mogelijke oplossingen voor stijgende waterstanden, nieuwe energiebronnen, onze blik op luchtvervuiling en het belang van onkruid zijn allemaal belangrijke onderdelen van deze toekomst. Hoe zien de huizen er eigenlijk in de toekomst uit? Wat zal er aan onze muren hangen en op onze tafels staan? En hoe worden die producten gemaakt? Maar ook daarbuiten: Hoe creëren we nieuwe verbindingen tussen mensen? Hoe kunnen we, na een pandemie vol afstand, opnieuw onze relaties leren waarderen en vieren? Dit zijn de vragen van de toekomst die ons vandaag bezig houden. Oplossingen voor de grote vragen van het Nieuwe, kunnen worden gevonden in onze acties en ideeën Nu. Kom dus naar onze show om het Nieuwe Nu te zien, voelen en bespreken.
