About the series

How do we imagine our future? How do we envision the process of generating synthetic life, our upgraded avatars, and how do we see consciousness arising from these Things we are constantly upgrading? the CORE is a series of audiovisual works inspired by the events devoted to electronic dance music and social engagement of people through avatars happening in the CENTER, a social VR hub developed by me (Tanja Vujinovic) and numerous collaborators under the umbrella of my production organization ULTRAMONO. These spaces exist on a few social virtual and desktop platforms like Sansar and VRChat.
