

DDW Talks: Architecture & Public Space

Shared spaces

Shared spaces

Hosted by: DDW Talks

Project Information (EN)

There are countless opportunities and reasons for adapting public and shared spaces to the radically changing social and technological circumstances. To do this, we need to observe and understand these changes better, but this also calls for new approach

Projectinformatie (NL)

In de Architecture & Public Space Talk wordt nagedacht over nieuwe ontwerpconcepten voor de toekomst van bouwen, stedelijke transformatie en openbare ruimte. Kom meer te weten over circulariteit, technologie en steden creëren met en voor mensen. Alle D
