Project Information (EN)

Through years of training, dancers develop a strong sense of proprioception and kinesthesia - a sense of body. It is our kinesthetic and proprioceptive senses that allow us to stand still and run at full sprint. After consulting with dancers, physiothe

Projectinformatie (NL)

Door jarenlange training ontwikkelen dansers een sterk gevoel voor proprioceptie en kinesthesie. Het zijn onze kinesthetische en proprioceptieve zintuigen die ons in staat stellen stil te staan en op volle kracht te rennen. Nadat ik met dansers en fy
