a social study of social distancing

Hosted by: Studio H & Hendrik Works

Project Information (EN)

Faced with the problem of real-life social engagements during the Covid19 pandemic our collective designed oversized 1,5m cutlery sets and interactive tools to help people connect socially while keeping, and experiencing, the recommended physical distance

Projectinformatie (NL)

De tentoonstelling MINI MEET stimuleert creatief denken en biedt oplossingen om de nodige fysieke afstand van 1,5-meter te houden zonder om de sociale aspecten van een ontmoeting te verliezen. Door de effecten van de coronamaatregelen op het sociale le
