Hosted by: Martina Taranto

Project Information (EN)

‘Relativistic Objects’ challenges contemporary behaviours and life habits related to the way we conceive and perceive the passing of time. These objects speak to anyone interested in redefining the way we approach and experience our lives, and emphasize t

Projectinformatie (NL)

‘Relativistische objecten’ daagt hedendaags gedrag en levensgewoonten uit die verband houden met de manier waarop we het verstrijken van de tijd opvatten en waarnemen. Deze objecten benadrukken het belang van fysieke interactie. Dit project vertaalt zich
