Overview

“Urgency Calling!” presents projects from BA Industrial Design and MA Systemic Design students at HTW Berlin, including selected graduation projects. The exhibition showcases the diversity of student work, from initial concepts to finished prototypes.

Focus

The show highlights the department’s core competences in Sustainability, Human Experience, and Systemic Design. Visitors can explore innovative solutions addressing social, environmental, and systemic challenges through design.

Invitation

We invite you to discover and interact with our concepts, models, prototypes, and experimental designs. Experience the creativity and research-driven approach of our students at Klokgebouw during Dutch Design Week.

Projectinformatie (NL)

Projecten en afstudeerwerken van BA Industrial Design & MA Systemic Design aan HTW Berlijn.

Overzicht

“Urgency Calling!” presenteert projecten van BA Industrial Design en MA Systemic Design studenten aan de HTW Berlijn, inclusief geselecteerde afstudeerprojecten. De tentoonstelling laat de diversiteit van studentenwerk zien, van eerste concepten tot voltooide prototypes.

Focus

De show benadrukt de kerncompetenties van de opleiding in Duurzaamheid, Human Experience en Systemisch Ontwerpen. Bezoekers ontdekken innovatieve oplossingen voor sociale, ecologische en systemische uitdagingen via design.

Uitnodiging

We nodigen u uit om onze concepten, modellen, prototypes en experimentele ontwerpen te ontdekken en ervaren. Beleef de creativiteit en onderzoeksgedreven aanpak van onze studenten in het Klokgebouw tijdens de Dutch Design Week.
